BRYR aims to provide high-quality training opportunities for community and voluntary groups working with young people in Ballymun. In order to ensure a good training environment for all participants, the following applies:

- All applicants must complete and submit an application form to book a place on a course (photocopies of the form are accepted).
- Places on courses are allocated on a first come first served basis.
- Payment for courses (or arrangements to pay by invoice) must be made before a course begins.
- All places booked will have to be paid for if not cancelled at least 48 hours prior to the course.
- Subsidies may be available to leaders from voluntary groups. Please contact BRYR for further information and application forms.

If you have any questions about these or other training opportunities available please contact Laurence on 8667600 or at bryrlvdh@eircom.net.

Please return completed forms to Laurence Van der Haegen, Training and Development Officer, at The Reco or fax to 8667690.
